

This gold and onxy seal, now owned by Yves, originally belonged to Yves' grandfather William Adams, younger brother of Edward Abadam. Their father, Edward Hamlyn Adams, married Amelia Sophia MacPherson. The three sides of the seal show the coats of arms of, left, William's mother's family: MacPherson, (motto: 'Touch not the cat but [without] a glove'); middle, William's father's family: Adams/Abadam (motto: 'Aspire, persevere and indulge not'); and right, the family of William's wife Agnès Shakespeare Jump: Shakespeare.

